The board of government of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of Connecticut will meet in this city Tuesday next to hold their semi-annual meeting.

Mrs. Owen Case and daughter Clara of Barkhamsted are visiting Mrs. Alfred Miles of 86 Elliott street. Mrs. Case's son is a senior in the Sheffield Scientific school.

The old red house on Golden Hill, Milford, formerly owned by the late Charles Tibbals, is being torn down to make room for improvements, and thus another old landmark will soon disappear.

Ex-Chief John Carter of the Hartford Volunteer Fire department died at his home in West Hartford yesterday morning, being the last but one of the incorporators of the Hartford Firemen's Benevolent society. He was born in 1812.

A meeting of the committee on squares of the court of common council will be held this evening, at which time the petition of H. A. Sibley and others concerning the care of grass and trees on the Edgewood avenue parkways will be considered.

The railroad committee will give the Hon. Henry C. Robinson, attorney for the Consolidated road, a hearing next Tuesday for the presentation of his argument showing how the business of the Consolidated road will be affected by the building of parallel electric lines.

The third of the United Lenten services was held in St. Thomas church last evening. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. L. Robbins, D. D., dean of All Saints' cathedral, Albany, N. Y. The subject was "Christian Love." Despite the weather there was a large audience.

The case of Martin A. Holden against Principal Edgar C. Styles of the Seymour high school will be tried before a jury in this city to-day probably. It is to decide the extent to which a teacher may go in corporal punishment. The sum of $1,000 is demanded by Holden for assault and battery.

Twenty-five members of the legislature went from the capitol at Hartford yesterday afternoon to Pagan's farm on Flatbush avenue, that city, where arrangements had been made to kill two cows afflicted with tuberculosis. Dr. Gardner, the veterinary surgeon, conducted the party and the operation proved entirely successful and very instructive to all present.

John Baker, seventy-four, died at the home of B. Hitehook on Divinity street, Bristol, Tuesday. His son, Mr. Baker of New Haven, superintendent of the Southern New England Telephone company, and a sister in Waterbury survive him. The sister will take charge of the funeral, Mr. Baker, the son, being at this time in the West Indies.

WALLING NEWS.

Big Delegation at "The Brownies"—Fifty Wallingford People Present—General News.

There was a big delegation from here that went to New Haven yesterday to take in Palmer Cox's "Brownies." The fifty tickets that were sent here for sale at the depot were disposed of early, and the many who went down in the evening had to take their chances on rush seats. The 6:24 train went down with eight cars crowded from up the road. Several who tried to get reserved seats had to be satisfied with tickets for Friday or Saturday.

The lecture on "Money and Its Offices" by F. W. Richards that was advertised to be delivered in Yaleville Tuesday evening was not a blooming success, as at the hour advertised for the lecturer to launch forth on the subject there was but six persons in the hall, half of whom were boys, and in consequence the lecture was not delivered.

W. P. Niles of New Haven has transferred to J. W. Fitzgerald the property corner of Center and Meadow street. Sheriff Rod Austin arrested an Italian named Salvatore Engelo yesterday morning on North Farms, who is charged by Fred Townsend with drunkenness and drawing a revolver upon him—Townsend. The prisoner claims that the weapon was only one of the double tin whistles. The case will come before Judge Hubbard this morning. The Italian was very noisy all day in the lock-up.

Mrs. A. J. Smith of Curtis avenue is in receipt of a box of orange blossoms from her daughter, Miss Edith, in Fort Pierce, Fla.

The masquerade ball of the K. of P. will be given in the armory Wednesday, April 17.

S. J. Large has accepted a position as designer for the Bristol Brass and Clock company.

Mrs. Blair, wife of the Rev. J. J. Blair, is at her home in Calais, Me. The proprietor of the Leaky block on Center street is about to remodel over the building and make great improvements in the appearance, and when the work is finished J. J. Blair's store will be one of the finest in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Miner have a new daughter that arrived yesterday morning.

The DeMoss family appear in the opera house this evening with vocal and instrumental musical specialties.

W. E. Hawkins has invented a handy article for use by careful housewives to take out hot pie tins, pudding dishes and other articles from the oven with safety and convenience, and by reversing can use the same for lifting the covers from the stove and for many other uses.

There has been much inquiry as to why the gas lamp on the corner of Center and Orchard streets has not been lighted for the past two evenings, also why so many lights on Hall avenue and Washington street are not burning.

Engagement Announced.
The engagement is announced of Dr. J. B. Sayles of this city and Miss Minnie K. Tuttle of Holyoke, Mass.

A Free Dinner.

The other evening a stylish and gentlemanly-looking individual stepped into one of the leading restaurants in Paris, took his seat at a table, and ordered a dinner tres recherche. When it was served up he tackled the dishes with the placid delight of a genuine epicure. When he was half way through the dessert, a closed cab drew up at the door of the establishment, and a very grave-looking gentleman requested permission to look through the premises, as he expected to find there a fraudulent banker, whom he as a detective was instructed to take into custody. Of course his demand was complied with, and no sooner had he entered the dining-room than he pointed to the luxurious reveller and whispered in the landlord's ear:

"You see our information was correct. There he is. But for your own sake we prefer to avoid a row. Please tell the gentleman that his friend Baron L. is outside and wishes to speak to him for half a minute."

On receiving this message our gastronomist immediately rose from the table and went out on the boulevard, where he was taken possession of by the detective, who put him into the cab and drove off with him. Next day the restaurant-keeper went to the nearest police office to recover payment for the "fraudulent banker's" dinner, amounting to about sixty francs. But neither the commissary nor his subordinates knew anything of the supposed capture. In the end it turned out to be nothing more or less than a clever bit of comedy got up for the purpose of enabling one of the actors to have "a good blow-out."—Le Figaro.

We're serving free coffee in the basement for the benefit of people who want to know how to make better coffee. Many coffee pots boil the coffee to death and actually waste one-half the coffee used. The "Gem" Coffee Pot doesn't do that. Trial is better than theory. See what the "Gem" will do. During this demonstration 1/2 lb. of coffee will be given to every purchaser of a "Gem" Coffee Pot.

Up to date, nothing prettier smiles from under our Silk motto of "one dollar a yard and less," than twelve twinkling styles of new Fancy Taffeta Silks.

Not fresh from the shelves, but fresh from the packing cases. Brilliant but not brazen. Lustrous but not loud. Ideal future Waists for sensibly proud Ladies. Price $1.00 a yard. Close by are the scarce black and white Taffetas at 75 cents a yard.

No, we have n't dispensed with our Picture Department. Never dispense with what people want, if we can avoid it.

Handsome, inexpensive Pictures and first-class framing at third-class prices, people want. That's certain. We moved the business up-stairs in the Art Room, second floor front. See how much prettier and handier everything is.

CLAY SUITS.

Striking advertisements count for nothing if there's nothing but the advertisement. They must have a solid backing to be effective. One of the most telling advertisements that we ever published was that of two weeks ago, on the FARWELL CLAY WORSTED SUITS. Telling because it truthfully told you in a few short, concise sentences of the strong points and sterling qualities which they possess. We could repeat and enlarge upon what we then said without exaggeration, but it is not necessary. The demand for the suits is fully up to our expectations, and a few days will suffice to sell the few hundred suits which we now have on hand. The coats are cut in four shapes, i. e., double and single breasted sacks, the stylish three-button cutaways, and the long, stylish Regent,—stouts, slims and regulars.

Men's Suits, all shapes, sizes 34 to 48, $10.00

Young Men's Suits, sizes 31 to 34, 9.00

Boys' Suits, sizes 6 to 16 years, 5.00
